OF

GONTERMANN-PEIPERS (INDIA) LIMITED

1. INTRODUCTION & BACKGROUND

Insider trading means dealing in Securities of a company by its Directors, Employees or other Insiders based on unpublished Price Sensitive Information. Such dealings by Insiders erode the investors' confidence in the integrity of the management and are unhealthy for the capital markets.

The Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI), in its endeavor to protect the interests of investors in general, had formulated the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 under the powers conferred on it under the SEBI Act, 1992. These regulations came into force with effect from 15th May 2015 and the same will be made applicable to all companies whose shares were listed on stock exchanges.

Sub-regulation (1) of Regulation 9 inter alia, requires all listed companies to frame a Code of Internal Procedures and Conduct for Regulating, Monitoring and Reporting of trading by insiders by adopting the minimum standards as set out in Schedule B to the Regulations.

Sub-regulation (1) of Regulation 8 requires all listed companies to formulate and publish on its website, Code of Practices and Procedures for Fair Disclosure of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information by adhering to the principles set out in Schedule A to the Regulations.

In order to ensure compliance with the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015, Gontermann-Peipers (India) Limited has formulated a code called "Code of Internal Procedures and Conduct for Regulating, Monitoring and Reporting of trading by Insiders" and "Code of Practices and Procedures for Fair Disclosures of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information".

A. CODE OF INTERNAL PROCEDURES AND CONDUCT FOR REGULATING, MONITORING AND REPORTING OF TRADING BY INSIDERS

In the absence of the designated / appointed Compliance Officer, the Chairman shall be authorised to appoint a person to act as the Compliance Officer in the period of absence.

- 5.1 The Compliance Officer shall assist all employees in addressing any clarifications regarding the Securities & Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 and the Company's Code.
- 5.2 The Compliance officer shall maintain a record of the designated employees and of any changes made in the list of designated employees (Annexure - 1).

The Compliance Officer shall be responsible for overseeing and co-ordinating disclosure of price sensitive information to Stock Exchanges, analysts, shareholders and media and educating staff on disclosure policies and procedure and report to the Chairman/ Managing Director.

6. Restriction on Dealing, Communicating or Counseling on Matters Relating to Insider Trading:

6.1 Restriction on communication or procurement of unpublished price sensitive information

6.1.1 No insider shall communicate, provide, or allow access to any unpublished price sensitive information, relating to the Company or securities listed or proposed to be listed, to any person including other insiders except where such communication is in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.

6.1.2 No person shall procure from or cause the communication by any insider of unpublished price sensitive information, relating to a company or securities listed or proposed to be listed, except in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.

6.1.3 Notwithstanding anything contained in this regulation, an unpublished price sensitive information may be communicated, provided, allowed access to or procured, in connection with a transaction that would:-

- entail an obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations where the Board of Directors of the Company is of informed opinion that the proposed transaction is in the best interests of the Company;
- not attract the obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations but where the Board of Directors of the Company is of informed opinion that the proposed transaction is in the best interests of the Company and the information that constitute unpublished price sensitive information is disseminated to be made generally available at least two trading days prior to the proposed transaction being effected in such form as the Board of Directors may determine.

6.1.4 For the purpose of the Regulation 3.1.3 the Board of Directors shall require the parties to execute agreements to contract confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations on the part of such parties and such parties shall keep information so received confidential, except for the purpose of regulation 3.1.3 and shall not otherwise trade in securities of the Company when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information.

6.1.5 "Need To Know" basis means that Unpublished Price Sensitive Information should be disclosed only to those within the Company who need the information to discharge their duty and whose possession of such information will not give rise to a conflict of interest or appearance of misuse of the information. All non-public information directly received by any employee should immediately be reported to the head of the department.

6.1.6 Limited access to confidential information - Files containing confidential information shall be kept secure. Computer files must have adequate security of login and password, etc. without prejudice to the above, the Directors, Officers and employees shall follow such guidelines for maintenance of electronic record and systems as may be prescribed by Compliance officer from time to time after consultation with the person in charge of the Information Technology function.

6.1.7 To prevent the misuse of confidential information the organisation will adopt a "Chinese Wall" policy which separates those areas of the Organisation which routinely have access to confidential information, considered "insider areas" from those areas which deals with sale/marketing/ investment advice or other departments providing support services, considered "Public areas".

The employees in the insider area shall not communicate any price sensitive information to anyone in the public area.

The employees in the Insider area will be physically segregated from the employees in public area.

Demarcation of the various departments as inside area may be implemented.

6.1.8 Restricted / Grey List - In order to monitor Chinese wall procedure and trading in client securities based on the inside information, the organization / firm shall restrict trading in certain securities and designate such list as restricted / grey list.

6.1.9 Trading Window - All Directors / officers and designated persons of the Company shall be subject to the trading restrictions as enumerated below.

- i. The Company shall specify a trading period, to be called "Trading Window", for dealing in the Securities of the Company by the designated persons of the Company.
- ii. Unless otherwise specified (Annexure - 2) by the Compliance Officer, the trading window shall be, inter alia, closed 7 days prior to :-
 - declaration of Financial results (quarterly, half-yearly and annual);
 - declaration of dividends (interim and final);
 - change in capital structure
 - any major expansion plans or execution of new projects;
 - amalgamation, mergers, takeovers and buy-back;
 - disposal of whole or substantially whole of the undertaking and
 - any changes in policies, plans or operations of the company.
 - changes in key managerial personnel
 - material events in accordance with the listing agreement.

- iii. The trading window shall remain closed until the Price Sensitive Information becomes generally available information.
- iv. The Compliance Officer after taking into account various factors including the unpublished price sensitive information in question becoming generally available and being capable of assimilation by the market, shall decide the timing for re-opening of the trading window, however in any event it shall not be earlier than forty-eight hours after the information becomes generally available.
- v. All Directors, Officers and Designated Persons shall conduct all their dealings in the Securities of the Company only when the trading window is open and no Director, Officer or Employee of the Company shall deal in the Securities of the Company during such period when the trading window is closed or during any other period as may be specified by the Compliance Officer from time to time.
- vi. The trading window shall also be applicable to any person having contractual or fiduciary relation with the Company, such as auditors, accountancy firms, law firms, analysts, consultants etc., assisting or advising the Company.
- vii. In case of ESOPs, exercise of option may be allowed in the period when the trading window is closed. However, sale of Securities allotted on exercise of ESOPs shall not be allowed when trading window is closed. However, exercise of a "cashless" stock option shall not be allowed when the trading window is closed since this type of exercise requires a sale of the Company's Securities.

6.2 Trading when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information

- 6.2.1 No insider shall trade in securities that are listed or proposed to be listed on a stock exchange when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information:

Provided that the insider may prove his innocence by demonstrating the circumstances including the following:-

- i) The transaction is an off-market inter se transfer between promoters who were in possession of the same unpublished price sensitive information without being in breach of Regulation 3.1.3 and both parties had made a conscious and informed trade decision.
- ii) In the case of non-individual insiders :-
 - a) The individuals who were in possession of such unpublished price sensitive information were different from the individuals taking trading decisions and such decision-making individuals were not in possession of such unpublished price sensitive information when they took the decision to trade; and

- b) Appropriate and adequate arrangements were in place to ensure that this regulations are not violated and no unpublished price sensitive information was communicated by the individuals possessing the information to the individuals taking trading decisions and there is no evidence of such arrangements having been breached;
- c) The trades were pursuant to a trading plan, which is set up accordingly.

6.2.2 In the case of connected persons the onus of establishing, that they were not in possession of unpublished price sensitive information, shall be on such connected persons and in other cases, the onus would be on the Securities & Exchange Board of India.

The Board may specify such standards and requirements from time to time, as it may deem necessary for the purpose of these regulations.

6.3 TRADING PLANS

An insider shall be entitled to formulate a trading plan and present it to the compliance officer for approval and public disclosure pursuant to which trades may be carried out on his behalf in accordance with such plan.

Such Trading Plan shall:-

- i. Not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the insider earlier than six months from the public disclosure of the plan;
- ii. Not entail trading for the period between the twentieth trading days prior to the last day of any financial period for which results are required to be announced by the issuer of the securities and the second trading day after the disclosure of such financial results;
- iii. Entail trading for a period of not less than twelve months;
- iv. Not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence;
- v. Set out either the value of trades to be effected or the number of securities to be traded along with the nature of the trade and the intervals at , or dates, on which such trades shall be effected; and
- vi. Not entail trading in securities for market abuse.

- 6.4 The Compliance officer shall review the trading plan to assess whether the plan would have any potential for violation of these regulations and shall be entitled to seek such express undertakings as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of the plan.
- 6.5 The Trading Plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the Insider shall mandatorily have to implement the plan, without being entitled to either deviate from it or to execute any trade in the securities outside the scope of the trading plan.

However, the implementation of the trading plan shall not be commenced, if any unpublished price sensitive information in possession of the Insider at the time of formulation of the plan has not become generally available at the time of the commencement of implementation.

The Compliance Officer shall confirm that the commencement of the Plan shall be deferred until such unpublished price sensitive information becomes generally available information.

Further, the Compliance officer shall notify the plan to the stock exchange on which the securities are listed.

7 PRE-CLEARANCE OF TRADES

- 7.1 When the Trading Window is open, trading by designated persons shall be subject to pre-clearance by the Compliance Officer, if the value of the proposed trades is in excess to the below mentioned threshold limits. Dealing in the securities of the Company by way of a transaction involving:-
- a. More than 5,000 securities of the Company, or
 - b. A consideration price exceeding Rs. 5,00,000/- for the securities of the Company, or
 - c. A volume of the Securities exceeding 2% of total shareholding or voting rights in the Company, or
 - d. Sale of securities of the Company before expiry of the holding period prescribed under provision 6.5 of this code, should obtain a pre-dealing approval for the transactions as per the procedure described hereunder. This is mandatory irrespective of whether or not a trading window is open.
- 7.2 No designated person shall apply for pre-clearance of any proposed trade if such designated person is in possession of unpublished price sensitive information even if the trading window is not closed.

7.3 Procedure for obtaining Pre-Dealing

For the purpose of obtaining a pre-dealing approval, the concerned director / officer / designated persons should make an application in the prescribed form (Annexure - 3) to the Compliance Officer. Such application should be complete and correct in all respects and should be accompanied by such undertakings, declarations, indemnity bonds and other documents / papers as may be prescribed by the Compliance officer from time to time (Annexure - 4).

7.4 Approval

- i) The compliance officer shall consider the application made as above and shall approve it unless he is of the opinion that grant of such approval would result in a breach of the Provisions of this Code, or the Regulation or the Companies Act, 2013.
- ii) Every approval letter shall be in such format (Annexure - 5) as may be prescribed by the Company from time to time. Every approval shall be dated and shall be valid for a period of 7 trading days from the date of its issue.

Pre-cleared trades have to be executed by the designated person, within seven trading days, falling which fresh pre-clearance would be needed for the trades to be executed.

- iii) All the directors / officers / designated persons and their dependents shall within 4 trading days of the execution of the deal, the details of such deal with the Compliance officer in the prescribed format. In case the transaction is not undertaken, a report to that effect shall be filed. (Annexure – 6).
- iv) All the directors / officers / designated persons and their dependents shall execute their order in respect of the Securities of the Company within one week after the approval of the Pre-Clearance is given. If the order is not executed one week after the approval is given, the employees / directors must pre-clear the transaction again.
- v) In the absence of the Compliance officer due to leave, etc, the Officer designated by him / her from time-to-time shall discharge the function referred above.
- vi) Prior to approving any trades, the compliance officer shall be entitled to seek declarations to the effect that the Applicant for pre-clearance is not in possession of any unpublished price sensitive information. He shall also regard to whether any such declaration is reasonably capable of being rendered inaccurate.

- vii) The compliance officer shall confidentially maintain a list of such securities as a "restricted list" which shall be used as the basis for approving or rejecting applications for Pre- Clearance of trades.
- viii) The Compliance Officer may waive off the holding period in case of sale of securities in personal emergency after recording reasons for the same. However, no such sale will be permitted when the Trading window is closed.

8. RESTRICTION ON CONTRA TRADE

This Code shall specify the period, which in any event shall not be less than 6 (six) months, within which a designated person who is permitted to trade shall not execute a contra trade.

The Compliance officer may be empowered to grant relaxation from strict application of such restriction for reasons to be recorded in writing. Provided that such relaxation does not violate these regulations, if a contra trade is executed, inadvertently, or otherwise, in violation of such a restriction, the profit from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to the Board for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund (IPEF).

9. OTHER RESTRICTIONS

- 9.1 The disclosures to be made by any person under this Code shall include those relating to trading by such person's immediate relatives, and by any other person for whom such person takes trading decisions.
- 9.2 The disclosures of trading in securities shall also include trading in derivatives of securities and the traded value of the derivatives shall be taken into account for purposes of this Code.
- 9.3 The disclosures made under this Code shall be maintained for a minimum period of five years, in such form as may be specified.
